Waterproof Footwear

Skellerup has been supplying New Zealand industry with high quality, genuine, hand lasted footwear for over 75 years. Ever since New Zealand's first rubber gumboot, the original "Marathon" emerged from the vulcaniser on September 9, 1943, Skellerup has set about creating a standard for waterproof footwear, not just here but around the world.

Skellerup gumboots are hand built with you in mind

Every Skellerup boot is hand built to meet exacting specifications and incorporates multiple components before the finished product is vulcanised using heat and pressure. Our range of gumboots offer heat resistant rubber soles, excellent slip and puncture resistance, and are custom designed for a specific fit and suited to a range of applications, climates and terrains.

RED BAND A KIWI ICON

Look outside a farmer's back door and chances are you'll find a pair of Red Bands. You can bet they've been around a while – you see we've been building Red Band gumboots since 1958.

Red Bands aren't flimsy, floral, wear-to-the-mall boots – they're a true New Zealand icon – tough, tried and tested. The boots Kiwis know and trust.
